

Renewal of ISO 9001 2015 Version Certification for the Quality Management System of Caisse de Dépôt et de Gestion's Savings Management

The Savings Management pole of CDG Group has again received the ISO 9001:2015 certification of its Quality Management System, following a renewal audit conducted by the international certification firm TUV Rheinland, whose perimeter of activity included the Consignments, Legal Professions, Institutional Funds, Banking Operations, Family Mutual Aid Funds, and Network Management.

This certification demonstrates the Group's commitment to its continuous improvement of processes in order to ensure the best quality of service for its clients, while building on its strengths in terms of innovative offerings.

Based on the Group's expertise in the mission of Savings mobilisation and securitisation in the interest of the general public, this certification is further recognition of multiple years of efforts undertaken by CDG to pursue its tradition of excellence, placing partner and citizen satisfaction at the core of its enterprise, offering products and services that meet their expectations.

Today, this certification renewal further consolidates CDG's role as a trusted third party, reinforcing its mission to mobilise funds requiring special protection, in service to the general public interest.
